

Bessie's Gallery of Photographs

Family Album

In front of 35 Pine Street St. Feggy, Al, Selig, Bessie and Ann

Selig, Ann, Bessie, Feggy and Al at the wedding of a friend in Manhattan

Ann, Feggy, Bessie, Al and Selig

Al and Abe at Al's wedding, 1941

Bessie's granddaughter Linda (author) with Jack

Ann on a pony at Trinity School, New Rochelle

Al and Sellig

Bessie's granddaughter Norma with Harry

Feggy and Ann

Feggy, Ann and Abe Bress (behind Ann) with friends at Playland in Rye, NY

Ann, Selig and Feggy Feggy, Al and Ann

Ann and Abe in East Stroudsburg, 1938

Childhood in Lithuania

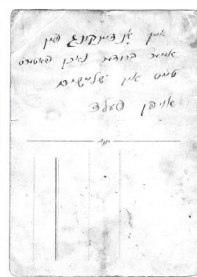

Bessie's father, Rabbi Joseph Markman (Tateh). This was among the few possessions Bessie brought with her in 1906.

The woman in the photo above is believed to be Bessie's mother, Sarah Markman (Mamaleh).

The postcard apprising Bessie of her father's death. The writing on the headstone reads: "Rabbi Joseph Markman, son of Aaron"

The photographs below are used with permission from Eilat Gordin Levitan and Larry Kotz, <http://www.eliatgordinlevitan.com/>

The Synagogue in Glubokoye circa 1902

Rebe visits in 1934

Street Scene

Winter Fun

Grain Merchants

Girls' Sewing Class in 1923

Typical Glubokoye Houses

Bessie's Gallery of Photographs

New Rochelle

New York

Anshe Shalom

Downtown New Rochelle

Immigrants at Ellis Island

NY from the Statue of Liberty, 1901

Isaac E. Young Jr. High School

Lowes Theater promoting The Covered Wagon in 1923

Times Square, 1922

NY throughout the decade

Brekner Barber Shop

Echo Bay

Trinewent playground in 1910

34th St. and 6th Ave., 1910

Train Depot

New Rochelle High School

Lower East 53rd Street

Hebrew Institute (later renamed Beth El)

Trinity Place Elementary School

Battery Park ca. 1817

Washington, 1920

Street sign designed by Norman Rockwell

Playing in the snow

Ice skating in Central Park

Today in 2016