What are some comments your family members might make upon hearing who you selected to be your special guest? _____

I Am Valuable

A sack of gold is valuable. Clean air is valuable. A good friend is valuable. There are many reasons why things are valuable.

Write a short story entitled, "I Am Valuable".

Illustrate your story.

Play: I'll Be Your Best Friend

Cast: Narrator, Tommy Tiger, Bill Bart

Setting: Duffy School and the Tuesdays' house

NARRATOR: Tommy liked to collect things. He had piles of comic books, boxes of old toys and bags of old coins. All of these things were squeezed into his bedroom closet. He was very proud of all his collections. Everyone knew about them. One day in school Bill Bart asked Tommy if he could see his collections. Tommy was surprised that Bill Bart even spoke to him. Bill and his brother, Bob, were the toughest boys in the school. They were big! Almost everybody was afraid of them.

BILL: I'll meet you right here after school tomorrow, OK, pal?

TOMMY: Pal? He must like me.

NARRATOR: Tommy told his family that Bill Bart was coming to their house.

MOMMY: You'd better be careful.

TOMMY: He's nice to me. He even called me his pal.

Tiger Tuesday's Farm

Tiger Tuesday wants to make a farm so he'll be rich and famous.

One Saturday morning, Tiger told Thurman and Marshmallow that he was going to make an animal farm. "Girls and boys will pay me a quarter to come see the animals," he said. "I'll be rich and famous!"

"Woof! woof! woof!!!!" said Thurman.

"RIBBIT JIBBIT!" said Marshmallow.

"Marshmallow, I know what you're thinking," said Tiger. "You don't think kids will pay me a quarter to see the animals on my farm. You'll see. It's going to be the best animal farm ever."

The first thing Tiger did was gather stones. He put the stones in a big circle on the ground under the tree house. Then
